

Article Submission Format for Historia y Cultura

The following form and declaration must be completed by each author:

Author's name:
Article title:
Institutional affiliation*:
Email:
ORCID:
Short biography:

*Add "independent researcher" if you do not currently have an institutional affiliation.

In addition, the author declares the following:

- The author declares that they have read the author guidelines on the official website of the journal Historia y Cultura and agree with their content. The guidelines can be found at the following link: Historia y Cultura official guidelines
- The author declares that the article submitted to Historia y Cultura, together with this form, is original and authored by them, and has not been published nor is under consideration for publication in another journal or book. The author also declares that Artificial Intelligence has not been used for the writing and analysis of the manuscript, or fabrication of data. The author retains the reproduction rights to the articles published in Historia y Cultura and agrees to cite the original source of the text in the event of reproduction by other means.
- The author declares that they have reviewed the reproduction rights of the images to be published in Historia y Cultura. The author assumes any legal or financial consequences arising from claims or lawsuits related to the reproduction of images.

Author's signature and/or name:

Date: